ESCAPES AT OCCOQUAN
NOT CAUSING ALARM

Secretary Wilson Says Number of Inmates Who Got Away
Is Small.

MANY PRIVILEGES ARE GRANTED

The escape of three prisoners from the District workhouse at Occoquan last Sunday night does not indicate any serious situation at the institution, in the opinion of George S. Wilson, secretary of the Board of Charities.

"Occoquan has about as small a number of escapes annually as any institution of its kind in the country—much smaller than most of them," said Mr.
Wilson yesterday afternoon. "During the last fiscal year less than 2 per cent of the prisoners confined during the period attempted to break away."

"Of course, we expect escapes from time to time, and with our present force of guards it is not likely that the percentage of them can be minimized further. At present, one guard is placed over fifteen or twenty men. In accordance with the system under which the institution is conducted, prisoners are given extensive liberties. The use of chains has been abolished, and striped suits have been discarded. Some of the trustees may be found as far as two miles away from the stockade driving wagons, and others may be found on barges navigating the river. And yet, despite the granting of these privileges, there are relatively few escapes."

"By the employment of additional guards it would be possible to make escape practically impossible, but the situation does not justify this additional expense. The prisoners at the institution all are serving short terms and are by no means in the dangerous class. They are sent there for relatively minor offenses, such as drunkenness, nonsupport, and disorderly conduct. No harmful results ever grow out of the occasional escape, however, officials of the workhouse take every precaution to minimize the number, for escapes tend to undermine the discipline of any such institution."

"The situation is by no means serious, and no alarm should be felt by the public when it learns of an occasional escape."

WILL OF WOMAN WHO DIED IN CHAIR FILED

Grandson.

DENIES DIVORCE RUMOR.

Wife of Stage Director at Columbia
Not to Leave Spouse.

Mrs. Edna Earl Andrews, an actress from Yonkers, last night flatly denied a story published yesterday in a New York paper to the effect that she had entered suit for divorce from her husband, Harry Andrews, stage director of the Columbia Players here.

The New York story stated that the suit had actually been filed in the Supreme Court of New York County. Mrs.
Andrews, known as the stage as Mary Alden, being named co-respondent. According to the New York story, it is alleged, that Andrews deserted his wife while playing with the Belasco Stock Company in Los Angeles three years ago.

Mr. Andrews joined with his wife last night in branding the report as utterly false. Both are living together at the Farragut Apartments. Mr. Andrews is in the castle at the Columbia this week.
This is his first season with the Columbia Players. Last year he was connected with the Poli company here.

New Committee Chaired.

The Senate yesterday elected Senator Chamberlain of Oregon as chairman of the Committee on Military Affairs, Senator Myers of Montana as chairman on Public Lands, Senator Smith of Arizona as chairman on Irrigation and Reclamation of Arid Lands, and Senator Vardaman of Mississippi as chairman on National Conservation.

Wants Damages for His Death.

Josephine E. McSwiney, executrix of the estate of Eugene E. McSwiney, yesterday filed suit against Marshall King and Louis King for $20,000 damages, alleging that November 16, 1911, while her husband was "landing at Fourteenth Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, he was run into by an automobile of the defendant and died August 14, 1912, as a result of the injuries received in the accident."

Denies Wife's Allegations.

Maynard A. Bayles yesterday filed his answer to the suit of Mrs. C. Bayles for absolute divorce, denying the allegations cited against him forming the basis of her suit.

512 NINTH STREETWORK FOR DELEGATE
BILL OFF TILL FALL

Association Formed to Boost Measure to Wait for Capital to Become Normal.

The District Delegate Association will not spend any more of its ammunition in advocacy of the bill now before the Senate District Committee providing for representation of the District by a delegate in Congress, until the summer session is fully past and Washington is normal and is in a receptive mood.

The campaign for the enactment of the measure will commence with all its vigor about the middle of September, appeals being made to various civic organizations throughout the District to lend their support to the movement. Although no apparent work will be done this month, officers of the Delegate Association, which is directing the fight, are busy preparing for the coming crusade.

Letters are being formulated for distribution among organizations and individuals; Congressmen are being surounded as to their stand in the matter, and details of the campaign are being worked out.
